

The FAWCO Foundation 2018 Development Grants

Education

Three Awards, each $4,500

For projects promoting literacy, support academic studies, building or providing classrooms, libraries or general learning facilities for disadvantaged children.

Due to the generosity in sponsorship, there are three awards available:

The AW Surrey and AWC The Hague Grants will be given to the two general-education nominated projects receiving the most votes.

The Pam Dahlgren Grant is specifically for an educational program in the geographical area of Africa and will be awarded to the Africa-focused nominated project which receives the most votes.

AW Surrey Hope Through Education

AWC The Hague Creating Better Futures

Pam Dahlgren Educating Africa's Children

Environment

One Award $4,500

For projects promoting the responsible use of the environment to provide for the basic needs of a family or community.

Nurturing Our Planet

Health

Two Awards, each $4,500

For projects providing medical treatment, diagnostic services, preventive care or medical counseling. This can include but is not limited to cancer, HIV/AIDS, communicable, non-communicable and environmental diseases, substance abuse, live-improving surgeries, mental issues, the critically ill, the disabled, the aged, medical transport, special needs and maternal health for mothers and children.

Due to the generosity in sponsorship there are two awards available, which will be given to the two highest ranked applicants.

Coughlan Family Foundation In Sickness & Health

Critical Health Concerns, sponsored in part by Renuka Mathews

Human Rights

Two Awards, each $4,500

For projects providing vocational training, teaching practical skills and promoting social entrepreneurial initiatives for at-risk/marginalized population groups and for projects addressing the critical problems of violence, food and shelter, healthcare, education, poverty, advocacy, human trafficking, prostitution, refugees or cultural understanding in a FAWCO Member Club's host country or the world.

Due to the generosity in sponsorship there are two awards available, which will be given two projects receiving the most votes.

Breaking the Cycle, sponsored in part by AILO Florence and AW Eastern Province

FAUSA Displaced Women & Children